Skills and Experience: Hey guys, I'm Angus.

I'm a pretty die hard fan of Morrowind, so I'm hoping to see Skywind stay as faithful as possible to the original - especially in the music department (And I'd love to help out if there is room ;D)

I was lurking through the sound forums this afternoon checking out what people have been making - And I thought it was lacking in the moaning french horn department.

So threw together a rough little track, mostly to play with the instruments/tones and get some feedback from you guys.

I have a pretty speedy workflow - the track attached took me about half an hour - So I could pump out a few more jams/ideas if you like what you hear.
