Interested in: Writing, quests and if possible the main quest or a part of it.

Level of Commitment: Moderately active

Skills and Experience: I've written a book, in Dutch, but my english is pretty good too. So writing is my main expertise. I prefer fantasy, low fantasy or high fantasy, both are nice in my opinion.

I have other talents, but I've seen people on these forums who are simply better at it. I'm a pretty good landscaper as well, but I have no experience in the creation kit. Then again it's been ages since I've designed anything digitally. I used to work with valve hammer, so I'm pretty much a dinosaur;-)

I've translated the prologue of my book. See if you like it. It's included in the appendix.
