Skills and Experience: I am currently living in Italy and studying fine art. I moved here from Australia so I couldn't take any decent tech with me - anything I do will be by hand. Provided below is my Instagram. Don't let the traditional style put you off, because the skills are all transferable. I have been drawing heaps of fantasy and fan art stuff since age 6 (eg; like the Mouth of Sauron pic in my profile), but I decided to study traditional because it provides the fundamental rules of art.

And I ticked writing as well because I am not quite sure what kind of writing you need but I'll be willing to give it a go too.

Anyway, that probably succinctly encompasses what is important.
