Skills and Experience: I am a professional programmer though the experience of the commercial development is only 1 year. My main working language now is php. I have good understanding of OOP and patterns.

I have applied before and participated in the Mentor Program where got to stasis due to my life circumstances. Now was advised to apply again in the Discord chat.

Have got some knowledge of CK during the Mentor Program. I think that I am good at accurate placing clutter pieces together :)

I will attach my work just as example though it only shows half of 'Setting the scene' stage.
